

Hong Kong Science & Technology Park grants approval to Excorp Medical (HK), Ltd

December 17, 2008

Excorp Medical (HK), Ltd. was granted approval to locate its R&D and bioartificial bioreactor facility at Hong Kong Science & Technology Park (HKSTP), Shatin, Hong Kong on December 17, 2008. This innovative campus encompasses information technology & telecommunications, electronics, precision engineering, industrial designs and biotechnology in focused clusters supporting an international centre of innovation and technology development. The excess manufacturing capacity of the Excorp Medical (HK) Facility at this location will be sufficient to being the Phase III trial in China.